

26 February 1993, Erev Shabbat Londrina, Brazil

Blood Marrow

Blood marrow is very important — we can't live without it — but it is something that we can't see. It doesn't get any recognition. There are people in the Body who don't get a lot of recognition, but what they do is essential to the Body. Sometimes the things you don't see are most essential to life.