

Calling on Him

It is our duty to Him to call upon Him every day. It is so wonderful when I can call upon Him and He hears me and I can receive grace. We are those who call upon Him and we receive grace and we speak words of thanksgiving. We come to the sacrifice to speak words of thanksgiving to Him. Whoever has called upon Him has words of thanksgiving.

I'm thankful that I called upon Him even before I came here tonight, that I would be in fellowship with Him. It's a matter of having a relationship with Him. Belonging to Him means having a relationship with Him. Those who belong to Him are Abraham's offspring. Those who belong to Him have crucified their flesh with its cravings and desires. Those who belong to Him set their mind on the spirit and they have life and peace.

I'm thankful that He gave me the grace to set my mind on the spirit. Sometimes I can't do it. Something in me has to be crucified before I can do it. Sometimes I just cannot do it; no matter whether I go to cry out, I cry out in vain. But I cannot put my mind on the spirit until my will meets His will — where I can really give myself over to Him. That's what He wants.

He wants all of us to come to that — to be able to really call upon Him — really call. If I call, He will answer me. If I scream my head off it doesn't mean I called. But I called upon Him and He heard me and I'm thankful. I love you Yahshua because you heard my voice (Ps 116). You heard my cry and I will call upon you all the days of my life. And that's what I want to do, I want to be able to call upon Him all the days of my life.

That's my heart's desire and I know that He is going to give it to me. So let's call upon Him tonight, give Him the overflow of our hearts.
