

Insecure Sheep

Pr 22:10 — War grows out of personal strife. Such strife roots in insecure people who mock the achievements of others, and zealously fight for undeserved attention.

Peace can only come when there are no insecure people. Insecure sheep come about when the sheep are without a shepherd who cares for them, listens to them, etc., as those who “keep watch” over their souls as watchmen (Heb 13:17).