Let's Read Colossians 3

Let's be devoted today, taking some time to read Colossians 3. It speaks about a daily life of spiritual commitment. There is no way you can obey this except by living in community. It speaks about the things we are to give ourselves to and things we aren't. If we are obeying Colossians 3, we know we are on the path of life; if not, we aren't.

Devote yourselves today to read Colossians 3. We will see tonight what you learned, what spoke to you.
