

The Love of the Truth

Mt 24:4,5,9-13,24,25; Jn 5:43; 6:63-64; Rom 16:17-18; Dan 11:32; Gal 1:6-9; 6:12-13; 2 Cor 11:4,12-15 (NIV; Satan's apostles); Hos 2:19-20; Eph 5:20-27; Phil 3:2-3,18,19; 2 Ths 2:10.

The utter reality of YHWH's word — only those who love the truth, who receive the love of the truth, who open their minds to the utter reality of the truth of YHWH's word, who will fall in love with the truth, will be kept from PRESUMPTUOUS SIN. They will not believe the lie. Others simply will not be able to help themselves for there will be a great deluding influence, a flood of feelings which is greater than the TRUTH that they know any thing about because they never opened themselves up to utter abandonment to the word of YHWH (Jn 8:32,31). When the restrainer is removed they will be deceived. Only by receiving the love of the truth today will you be able to stand in that day (Eph 6:10-13), that evil day when the restrainer is removed, when the culmination of deception comes upon the whole world (when things are at their worst). US News, Time, all the TV press and world news has had its deadly effect upon everyone's mind. We must in that day be able to complete our task and still stand (Dan 11:32). For even now the secret power of lawlessness is at work, but since the restrainer is not yet removed we stand — barely. But when the restrainer is removed we will not be able to withstand the temptation and will fall from our pseudo-steadfast position. This is because we now are not opening ourselves up to the love of the truth (Jn 8:12,47). We are gone somewhere else when the apostles' teachings are in session (Acts 2:42; Jn 6:64; Heb 4:1).

When this evil day comes and the anti-Messiah or anti-anointed comes bringing another anointing, those who are not acquainted with the true Anointed One will be deceived (1 Jn 2:19-29). This delusion will be attended by all-powerful signs and miracles of the lies and all the deception that lawlessness can impose on those who are not NOW, this very day, receiving the anointing, those who are on their way to destruction (Mt 7:13-14) because they did not open their minds and hearts to the love of the truth so as to be saved in that evil day. And because they did not deliberately do this, YHWH Himself, who knows all hearts (Gal 6:7; Heb 10:30), will put them under a delusion which will work on them to believe THE LIE, so they will be brought into judgment (2 Ths 1:8-10), believers and unbelievers alike. Because how much more severe a penalty that man will deserve who has trampled under foot the Son of God and profaned the blood of the Covenant by which he was once and for all consecrated, and has affronted YHWH's Spirit of grace. For YHWH will repay His people whom He is covenanted with. Because justice is His, He will repay. These ones who are now not receiving the love of the truth will not be able to stand in that evil day, but will fall into the hands of discipline of the living Elohim. And that is a terrible thing.

Eph 6:10-13 — The evil day is coming upon all flesh, and only those who can stand will stand — all others will fall into deception (Rev 3:10; Lk 21:34-36). Only those who have kept His commands and stand fast will be able to stand this testing, this ordeal, that is to fall upon the whole world and test its inhabitants.

Jn 6:67-68 — Whenever His words mean to us anything less than eternal life, we have either deserted Him or else are contemplating it.

The love of the truth (Acts 2:42; Jn 14:21-24). "The man who has received My commands and obeys them, he it is who loves Me; and he who loves Me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and disclose Myself to him. Anyone who loves Me will heed what I say; then My Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him; but he who does not love Me does not heed what I say."

2 Ths 2:13-14 — "From the beginning of time YHWH chose you to find Salvation in the Spirit who consecrates you and in the truth that you have put your total and absolute trust in. It was for this that He called you through the good news we brought to you, so that you might possess for your own the glory of our Sovereign YAHSHUA the Messiah."

Phil 3:10-14 — "All I care for is to know Messiah and to experience the power of His resurrection and to share His sufferings in growing conformity with His death, if only I may finally arrive at the resurrection from among the dead!"

Rev 20:4 — These came alive again and reigned with Messiah for 1000 years, though the rest of the dead did not come to life until the 1000 years were over. This is the FIRST RESURRECTION. Only those who attain to the first resurrection and gain the glory of Messiah have any value to their Sovereign Messiah — all the rest are now just saying, "Lord, Lord..." (Mt 7:21).

Our Father has a will for us. Are we by our own volition giving ourselves to that will? And do we know His will? (Rom 12:1-2).

So when the restraining power is taken away, the only thing that will keep us (in that evil day) is the love of the truth we received while it was called today (Heb 3:7,15). Today we must receive the love of the truth, or when the evil day comes, when the restrainer is taken out of the way, we will be swept away by the first wave. Mt 7:25-27 — We are either building our house upon the truth or upon the sand. That day will reveal our work (1 Cor 3:13). The Corinthians were swept away because of what he wrote to them in 2 Cor 11 about Satan's Apostles, the false anointing, or evil workers (2 Cor 11:2-3; Hos 2:19-20; Eph 5:26-27). These super apostles are paid preachers (2 Cor 11:7-10). Paul compares his opponents to the serpent of Gen 3:4,13-15.

Only in the presence of our "personal Devil" can the Holy Spirit perfect us — as those who really love Him (1 Jn 4:6). So, on one hand there is Satan's ministry — as the adversary, Devil, or accuser, the thief, robber, and killer — and on the other hand the ministry of the Holy Spirit. If one is not giving himself over to the love for the truth, but is entertaining the ministry of Satan, then there can be no sanctification, and when the restrainer is taken out of the way, they will be overwhelmed by the false anointing of false apostles, which Paul calls Satan's ministers or Satan's apostles (2 Cor 11:1-15).

If a brother is receiving Satan's ministry now in seemingly insignificant things — "I saw the way he looked at me; he doesn't like me!" — "No one understands me!" — "Everyone thinks I'm stupid!" — "My husband doesn't spend enough time with me; he's avoiding me," and on and on goes the ministry of Satan's lying, dividing spirits in small insignificant accusations, etc. — then that person will (and is being set up to) receive the false apostles in that evil day. Those who receive this ministry will not be able to help themselves, for they have been giving themselves to that spirit so much in the past.

"At all times we have made known to you the full truth" (2 Cor 11:6). Paul, in whom the true anointing abided, was one who preached the full gospel and the whole plan and purpose of YHWH (Acts 20:20,25,27,31,32; 2 Ths 2:9-12; 2 Cor 11:12-15).

You can see how it will happen when the flood comes upon the church to test whether or not one has received the love of the truth. There cannot be a test as long as Restrainer restrains — but only after he is removed can it be revealed who is NOW receiving the anointing, the teaching which we are committed to (Rom 6:17), who is committed or devoted to the truth which will save you (2 Ths 2:10) in that evil day when deception is in full strength, when things are at their worst (Dan 11:32).

2 Cor 11:12 — So it will come about that whoever wants to seek recognition, as on the same level as their father Paul, is Satan's minister, seeking equality — putting themselves on the same level as his authority. Such men are sham apostles, crooked in all their ways, "his" agents and ministers or apostles — his, meaning Satan's very own personal sent ones who are bent on destroying the work of the Spirit of YHWH — unity and brotherly love (1 Jn 3:8).

There can be no perfection of the saints without the personal ministry of the spirit of evil working among us as the unseen forces of the dark world — so, knowing his evil ministry, we must by necessity put on the full armor of YHWH to be able to stand against the devices of the devil (Eph 6:11-13). We must learn today to fight with the spiritual weapons we have in order to be TRAINED to the fullest, equipped in every way to be able to stand in that evil day which is coming upon the whole world — having done everything — and still stand fast.

Eph 6:18 — Give yourselves to prayer and entreaty, pray on every occasion in the power of the Spirit — intercede for all of YHWH's people, pray for the workers.

Today we are being perfected by the giving of ourselves to the truth and the Holy Spirit — being able to extinguish all the flaming arrows and the evil one's fiery darts — feelings of all kinds, thoughts, accusations, about yourself and others.

You would leave today if the restrainer was taken out of the way. Someday he will be taken out of the way, but by that time — if we hear His voice today — we will be trained to be able to stand in that day.

Nothing less than the steadfast love of YHWH, which never ceases toward those with whom He has made a covenant, will see us through to the end without being deceived by the personal Devil who roams around seeking someone to devour. We must love one another and the truth so much that we would not receive his ministry into our lives — but would be able to judge ourselves and submit ourselves to YHWH and resist the Devil and by that — and only that — will he flee from us. Thus we will not be one of the many victims he will devour.

We are kept together by love and kindness, by believing the best about one another — and by giving ourselves to the Holy Spirit in one another, enduring to the end by enduring with one another. What undoes this is listening to the EVIL ONE about ourselves and about one another.

Laying down our own lives for one another, denying ourselves, walking down the narrow road, is the only way to life. All other roads lead to death, destruction. But what if we know that, but we never submit ourselves to YHWH and resist the accuser's voice and ministry and feel so bad about ourselves that we believe that our brother has something against us by the way he looked at us (when it is only your own feelings about yourself that you interpret as a look of disapproval)? You have entertained an evil angel and had a communion with demons. You believed the LIE about yourself and this effects how you see others. So, you are ready to receive the false anointing — which will come in from outside and from our own brothers who also have believed the WORST about themselves and about one another and received a spirit which will try to divide the unity of the Holy Spirit (Eph 4:1-3; 1 Cor 3:16).

If we then do not receive the love of the TRUTH, how can we be saved? Our Father is out to save us, but He can do nothing apart from our receiving the love of the truth. Then He can save us. His job is to save, but ours is to receive the love of the truth. We can do nothing but receive and receive. WE WILL — by the grace of YHWH. AMEN.
