

Lovingkindness is Loyalty

His lovingkindness is loyalty. It means loyalty to us. He will always be loyal to us. His lovingkindness will never end. We made a covenant to always be in communion with Him so that His multifaceted Body could express His beautiful, wonderful personality. Each one of us shows a different aspect of the personality that he can express Himself through in the universe. Just like a gem has many aspects, radiating light, each facet throwing off light in another direction, radiating beautifully. Our Father needs to express with each person in the Body His great, multi-faceted personality. How could He do it with just one person? He has to have every last aspect so He can be complete, so that we can complete Him in every aspect, every way, so He can show His radiance, His splendid glory. He needs Racham to grow up and be that channel for one of the ways that He is. And He needs for Tikvah to come into it. The Bible speaks of His multi-faceted Body — that is why He needs all of us. It is not complete without one. Each and every one is different, a different aspect. But every facet has to be in communion with Him so that He can show himself through them.

Francisco came back. Maybe it is because he is an aspect of Him. We have to judge him right. Why did he come back? Did he come back to be in communion with our Master Yahshua? What is his motive? (Jn 6:44) He has to know his motive. Everyone has a purpose and a motive. What is your purpose and motive?
