

No Unholy Alliances

Hakam, I appreciate the work you and Havah are doing on the anti-cult groups, but want to stay within the boundaries of His love and kindness. That is, within the covenant with Him there are boundaries. You walk on a fine line, but your name is wisdom. Daniel 12 says the wise will understand. There can be no unholy alliances between us and other religions with false teachers (who are really ministers of Satan — notwithstanding their charming and persuasive ways) to become unequally yoked; this would sever us from Messiah (2 Cor 6:15; Deut 22:10, 13:13).

We have to recognize Belial: 2 Cor 6:16. It is essential that we form no defiling and unholy alliances. You sit in a vulnerable position; exposed and open to attack and persuasion. Grace upon grace be upon both of you for the sake of all Israel and our Father's purpose on earth — Is 53:10.

We need to continue to deal with these anti-cult groups — especially Christian anti-cult ones — appealing to their doctrinal position, but not in coalition with any other religious (people or group) — since we are the commonwealth of Israel. It is only between the tribes and clans of Israel that we can exist as a co-alliance/the state of being married together (John 17:11,16-18; 2 Cor 6:14 in the Weymouth; class association).

Dear Yoneq,

This is just a short note to relay to you a conversation Havah had with Susan Palmer today. It seems that the conference in Rome is May 10th instead of May 4th. The conference will be for the academic scholars of Europe who study New Religious Movements (similar to G. Gordon Melton, Jim Lewis, Susan Palmer and others who wrote the book, "From the Ashes of Waco — Making Sense Out of the Tragedy in Waco," in which they exposed C.A.N. and the anti-cult movement). Unless we can go in another way except to involve us with "them." Let me know if we can. We don't want to be contiguous with them. Contiguous is "touching near" (to fornication), if you know what I mean. Contiguous means in the proximity of another in a way that is flirting with disaster.

A couple of months ago, Susan told us about this conference when I was asking her about the group in Paris (A.D.F.I.) that put out the information used on the radio program in France. Susan told me that we should send some representatives from Sus to the conference and that she would introduce us to the European scholars, who are very opposed to A.D.F.I., C.A.N. and other similar anti-cult groups. We will send by mail some of this information today (It is in French.).

Earlier tonight she asked Havah and me if we were going to the conference. (Consult together) We said we didn't know. She said that if we were, she would try to get us (on the program.) Do not be seduced into a coalition with what would defile us. This could mean we would have a similar opportunity to speak and tell our story about The Raid, Isaac's case, similarities with Waco and A.D.F.I.'s involvement with us in Europe. She wanted to know as soon as possible. She also suggested that having a flyer exposing how (we've) been affected by C.A.N. activities would be very good to hand out there. (Working with them — who are responsible for the protection and propagation of other sects and cults under the guise of religious freedom.)

Susan believes she could arrange for us to have an "information booth" there if we wanted to be available explain ourselves to people. She is happy to introduce us to key people there and expressed that knowing a few people like that in Europe (to call upon) when we are harassed might be very helpful. She was careful to explain how, at these conferences where members of (new religious movements attend) — suppression — it is not intended as an opportunity to evangelize or convert, but rather to share common experiences in an effort to see that people's rights to express religious freedom are protected.

If you have any comments about this, please let me know. We are still in Nova Scotia for a few more days waiting for the decision in Isaac's appeal. You can fax me at 902-538-8734 or phone me at 902-538-8736. — Hakam

2 Cor 6:14-7:1 in the Amplified Bible. We are to call upon no other source (God), or share common experiences with for our protection. 2 Cor 6:14,16. Verse 16 means putting the Temple of God and other religions on an equal basis. A coalition is an affiliation — alliance, association, bloc, combination in conjunction with other religions. It is a fusion, an integration, a league. In union with the league — agreement with (the ungodly) material help, combining ourselves and our experiences with others who do not know God. This is "mismatched alliances." This is being contiguous, or touching near; it is corresponding in some level with other religions — in conjunction. Juxtapose, juxtaposition, adjacent — alongside of the others, bordering on fornication with the world. Be careful.
