

Not Relating to Each Other in the Past

[The notes of this minchah should be used in conjunction with the notes of the social meeting, 2 December 1996; 2 December, Morning Minchah and 3 December, Morning Minchah. These all use the names “Bill”, “Ann”, and “Pat” for the sake of discretion.]

One of the sisters that had talked to Ann affirmed her. Then Ann spoke, expressing her gratitude for the mercy that’s been shown her. She also expressed her thankfulness for the friends she has in the body. There was a hearty “amen” to her restoration.

We know we have passed out of death into life. Are we going to be friends and have fellowship with each other? We don’t think in the past anymore, only in the future. Everything is passed, behind us. Don’t relate to Bill and Ann in the past anymore. Our Master will think about your past if you remember their past. We are going to see wonderful, beautiful, luscious, edible fruit of repentance. We fell in love when we met in Spain.