Acts 2:17 — Your Sons and Your Daughters Shall Prophesy

Talmedin (Peter Cleveland) — I was reading the prophecy of Joel in Acts 2:17. I was really encouraged when it said in verse 17 that, "your sons and your daughters will prophesy." That is talking about us (the youth). And then in verse 18 it says, "In those days I will pour out my Spirit and they shall prophesy!" So I see how we all need to prophesy, which is: encouragement, exhortation, and the building up of the Body. We have to do this before verses 19, 20, and 21 will happen — which is the end of this age. Our Master can't bring about the end of the age until He has a people who do this.

Hananyah — I was thinking about what my brother shared because we have been talking about prophesying. It is a high standard, something which we can never do in our own strength. We heard the other day that when we go to the throne of grace we receive mercy and grace. Mercy for the past and grace for the present and future, to do what we're being called to do. When I heard this it made me thankful for the great mercy that has been shown to me in the past and for the grace I'm receiving to do what our Abba wants us to do. We can do it!
